

LATIN 122
BASIC PROFICIENCY IN LATIN

BULLETIN INFORMATION

LATN 122 - Basic Proficiency in Latin (3 credit hours)

Course Description:

Practice and further development of essential reading skills

Prerequisites: Admission either by placement score of L-3 or successful completion of LATN 110 or 121.

SAMPLE COURSE OVERVIEW

Latin 122 is designed to offer you structured, sustained practice in reading and analysis of basic Latin, as well as structured analysis of basic elements of the English language. The course will provide classroom instruction, followed by outside assignments designed to solidify concepts learned in class.

ITEMIZED LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon successful completion of Latin 122 students will be able to:

1. Decipher the elements within basic Latin sentences in order to understand what is being said;
2. Recite differing forms of words, with the understanding of what each form means;
3. Hear and respond to basic commands and short expressions;
4. Read with understanding passages of moderate length (30 lines) from ancient Roman authors
5. Demonstrate an understanding of the contributions of ancient Roman culture to Western literary and philosophical traditions.

SAMPLE REQUIRED TEXTS/SUGGESTED READINGS/MATERIALS

1. F.M. Wheelock, Wheelock's Latin, 6th ed. revised, (New York: Harper Collins, 2005).

SAMPLE ASSIGNMENTS AND/OR EXAMS

1. Fourteen Quizzes
2. Two Tests and a Final examination
3. Examination:
 - a. The Exit Examination and the Final Examination are identical and are given on the day of the scheduled Final Examination. There will be no exemption of the Exit Examination. If, however, you have 1) a quiz average equaling 89.5 or above; 2) a test average equaling 89.5 or above; 3) a homework average equaling 89.5

or above; AND 4) an "A" average on quizzes #11, 12, 13, & 14 (you must take these quizzes) you will receive an "A" upon passing the Exit Examination. Passing the Exit Examination fulfills the foreign language requirement and gives the student three hours of credit for LATN 122.

- b. If you fail the Exit Examination but have passed one of the two hour tests, you may take another Exit Examination once within seven days of your first attempt.
