University of South Carolina

Machine(s) used in research and development Request for sales and use tax exemption

Introduction: While the University of South Carolina is not a tax exempt entity, S. C. Code Section 12-36-2120(56) allows an exemption from sales tax for machines used in research and development. Machines include parts, attachments, and replacements which are necessary to the operation of the machine.

1. Name of research and development machine to be purchased:
2. Will the machine be used "directly and primarily" in researce of new products, new uses for existing products, or improvement
3. If marked "yes", please complete the below information. In exemption (normal tax rate will apply).	f marked "no", the machine will not qualify for the tax
(A) Please specify the new product you created from your reseattached Q $&$ A guide for assistance).	earch. Please provide the detail in simple terms (refer to the
New product name: Product use:
(B) Please specify the new use (s) or improvement (s) to the ε product.	existing product and how your research will improve the
Name existing product: New or improved use:
By signing the below, the purchaser, the department chair and In the event the S. C. Department of Revenue determines at a lin accordance with code section 12-36-2120(56), the department determined by the audit finding(s).	later date the machine does not qualify for the tax exemption
Printed name of purchaser (telephone)	Signature of purchaser
Signature of Chair (if applicable)	Signature of Dean (if applicable)
Controller/or Tax Manager	Purchasing-purchase order number