

Training of Trainers: Recognizing and Reporting Child Abuse and Neglect

Who should attend: Professionals who are interested in conducting mandated reporter training within their organization. It is a requirement that you have attended a basic Mandated Reporter training with the Children's Law Center to attend this training.

Overview: In this training, participants will learn how to deliver the Children's Law Center's Recognizing and Reporting Child Abuse and Neglect (Mandated Reporter) Training and answer frequently asked questions about mandated reporting. Participants will be required to attend the full training, pass a quiz, and return at a later date to conduct a presentation. Upon successful completion of the course, participants will receive a certificate of completion and may then conduct the Center's Recognizing and Reporting Child Abuse and Neglect Training to employees within their organizations.

Fee: There is no charge for this training.

Dates and Times:

- January 19, 2023 (9:00 am - 4:00 pm)
Participants will also be required to conduct a virtual presentation on Jan. 26, 2023.
- March 21, 2023 (9:00 am – 4:00 pm)
Participants will also be required to conduct a virtual presentation on Mar. 28, 2023.
- May 8, 2023 (9:00 am – 4:00 pm)
Participants will also be required to conduct a virtual presentation on May 17, 2023

Location:

Webinars will be conducted through Microsoft Teams, a free application. Participants must use a computer to access Microsoft Teams for this training.

For more information: Contact Lauren Marsh at marshla@mailbox.sc.edu.

To Register: Go to the Children's Law Center registration system at <https://sc.edu/clc/public/index.php>.

Registration is limited to 10 participants.

Confirmations will be sent via email. If a session has reached capacity, a waitlist will be established, and you will be notified via email.